

Medicare is confusing!!!

MEDICARE 101 WORKSHOP

July 22, 2019

1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Even people with multiple law degrees will tell you, Medicare is difficult to understand. The decisions that individuals age 65 and older are faced with as they age into the prime of life are not easy. To learn more about Medicare and what is considered critical valid documents that need your immediate attention, attend the July 22nd Workshop at the Senior Center where Lisa Barker, Regional Manager for the North Carolina Department of Insurance, will give non-biased research-based information. Lisa partners with NC Cooperative Extension, Area Agency on Aging, and local Senior Centers to make sure all Medicare Beneficiaries get educated before making critical health insurance decisions. To register, call the Perquimans Senior Center at 252-426-5404.
