More Funding Available for Foreclosure Prevention

Let citizens know about the NC Foreclosure Prevention Fund!

If you're still seeing too many homeowners facing foreclosure, we have great news: the NC Foreclosure Prevention Fund has received $224 million in additional funding from the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Hardest Hit Fund®.

As you know, the NC Foreclosure Prevention Fund makes mortgage payments for North Carolinians who have lost jobs through no fault of their own while they seek employment or job training in a few field. Others who have gotten behind on their mortgage payments because of divorce, illness or other temporary hardship may qualify for help while they seek jobs to get back on their feet. Veterans transitioning to civilian jobs are also eligible.

Recognizing that many homeowners are struggling with mortgage payments due to underemployment, the Fund also now provides assistance for homeowners who have secured employment after a financial hardship but are earning less and unable
